Palm Beach County Commercial Space

The Business Development Board of Palm Beach County's team of experts understands that even prime commercial property with breathtaking views is only the beginning. We know every facet of relocation and expansion, from the moment your research begins through your requirements for corporate governance, complex back-office support, thorough cost analysis, incentives, workforce directives, deciding whether you will construct a build-to-suit on "shovel-ready" land or find an existing property, and so very much more.

Commercial Class A Cost Comparison (price per square foot)

Asking Rent	Asking Rent
NEW YORK CLASS A	PALM BEACH CLASS A
Midtown $73.81	CBD/West Palm Beach $46.42
Midtown South $66.94	East Boca Raton $30.29
Downtown $46.42	North Palm Beach $35.52

Manhattan commercial rents, from the beginning of 2008 through the beginning of 2010, dropped 44.3%. But from the first quarter of 2010 through the first quarter of 2013, those rents escalated 20.6%, and they're projected to rise to approximately $100 per square foot by 2017.

For the fifth consecutive quarter, the Palm Beach County office market experienced positive absorption. The countywide commercial vacancy rate for all classes was 20.5% in the first quarter of 2013, with direct asking rents posting $27.22 per square foot (SF). There are 3.2 million SF available in downtown West Palm Beach's commercial business district, 500,000 SF available on the island of Palm Beach, almost 3.6 million SF available in northern Palm Beach County (Palm Beach Gardens, North Palm Beach, Juno, Jupiter, Tequesta), and almost 11.5 million SF available in the Boca Raton area. In total, there are almost 25 million square feet of commercial space available in Palm Beach County from Jupiter/Tequesta south along the coast to Boca Raton.

The gross rental rate on Class A office space ranges from $52.30 on the island of Palm Beach to $24.32 in Lake Worth, just a few miles south. The combined average for Class A space in Palm Beach County is $34.78 per square foot, a savings of almost $12 per square foot over downtown Manhattan, and almost $40 per square foot in savings over Midtown. To put that into perspective, a 10,000 square-foot office in Palm Beach County would cost $390,300 less per month than 10,000 square feet in Midtown Manhattan. Over the course of a year, the savings is $4.68 million.

Palm Beach County Housing Market

BUSINESS + FINANCIAL SERVICES QUICK GUIDE

Palm Beach County Housing Market

Palm Beach County home sales lead the nation in median price recovery. Although South Florida was one of the country's hardest-hit housing markets, we're now among the most improved. Palm Beach County's median price hit $169,000 in December 2012, a 35% annual increase that led the nation according to a published report in January 14, 2013's Sun-Sentinel newspaper. South Florida homes lost approximately half their value in the housing crisis, but our market bounced back nicely in 2012. Palm Beach County caters to every taste, with many historic neighborhoods, gated communities, golf course communities, equestrian communities, country club communities, and waterfront communities in both downtown areas and more suburban environments. Whether your next home overlooks the Atlantic Ocean from the fabled island of Palm Beach or a polo field in Wellington, Palm Beach County truly has something to suit every lifestyle.
