

Robert J. McDonough

President, UTC Climate, Controls & Security

Robert McDonough was named President, UTC Climate, Controls & Security in September 2015. Previously, he served as Chief Operating Officer, Americas, for UTC Building & Industrial Systems, leading the company's HVAC, elevator, fire, security, building automation and field services businesses in North and South America.

Bob has more than 30 years of experience in general management, sales and marketing. In his eight years at United Technologies, he has served as Chief Operating Officer, UTC Climate, Controls & Security in the Americas; President, UTC Climate, Controls & Security in the Americas; President, Residential & Light Commercial Systems for Carrier Corp.; and President, Distribution and Aftermarket, Residential & Light Commercial Systems for Carrier Corp.

Before joining UTC, Bob spent 16 years with Lennox International, where he was President and Chief Operating Officer of Worldwide Heating & Cooling as well as Executive Vice President of Lennox International. Previously, he was President, Worldwide Refrigeration and International Operations.